

Thesis Seminar Topics

Department of Public Policy and Management

(valid from Year 2016/2017)

Name of Advisor	Topics
Sándor CSENGŐDI	Network industry and departmental regulation Role of the State in encouraging research, development and innovation Subvention of SMEs and competitiveness Effective implementation of public functions of the State Planning and evaluation of public policies
György GAJDUSCHEK	-Theory and practice of: (i) the policy-making process (including law-making), (ii) implementation planning and implementation, (iii) monitoring and evaluation practices. The thesis compares the theory with the practice of the given country (typically the student's home country) in one of the above fields. Comparative studies (i.e. the student's home country and the US or UK and/or Hungary) are also welcome. - Understanding the so called "legalistic administrative systems" of Central and East Europe and Latin America. These systems are dominated by lawyers and their view. Laws instead of policies are made, the implementation is taken for granted, etc.
György HAJNAL	Reforms, structures, and problems of government and governance on subnational and national levels Europeanization of national administrations and policies Policy processes and policy problems
Anita HALÁSZ	Education and social policy Impact evaluation of public policies Decentralization and fiscal federalism Economic governance in the European Union Cohesion policy in the European Union
György JENEI	Decision making and implementation and their relationship in public policy Special characteristics of public administration reforms in Central Europe and in Hungary
Krisztián KÁDÁR	- Analysis of public management reform process through selected case(s) - Analysis of public sector innovation through selected case(s)

Károly MIKE	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Economic Analysis of formal and informal institutions in the entrepreneurial economy - Community governance of public goods and common-pool resources - Economic analysis of public organisations and public decision-making
Miklós PÁSZTOR	Social Policy in the 21st Century Impact of the Social Media in Public Policy analysis
László VÁRADI	Analysis of a selected problem in Public Policy Analysis of a selected field in Public Policy